LIBRARY LEAVES

WHAT IS A BOOK?

We give thanks to some unknown
author for this:

A book is a tranquilizer or a stimulant, depending upon who takes it.

A book is a land mine, a time bomb, set to go off when it hits the mind of its reader.

A book is a baby sitter that doesn't have to be paid.

A book dropped into an eager mind is like one of those little Japanese magic tricks, a pressed flower that opens up when you drop it into a glass of water.

Or as Murray McCain says in a recent book very neatly entitled "Books!" - "A book is like another room, or another town, or another world, where someone is waiting to speak to you,"
